

NEW DVDs

April 2018

Battle of the sexes /Jonathan Dayton and Valérie Faris – 2018

Languages: English and French Subtitles: French for the hearing impaired, French and English

DVD (427)

In “Battle of the sexes”, 29-year-old Billie Jean King is frustrated by the disparity between what male and female tennis players are paid, and it’s her annoyance at this injustice that acts as a propelling force for the plot. An entertaining film about gender inequality on the court.

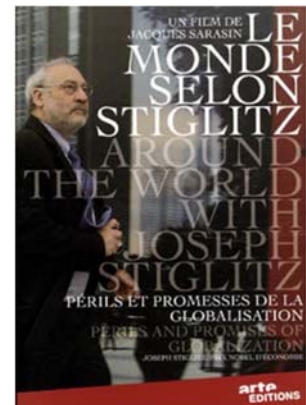

Le monde selon Stiglitz – Around the world with Joseph Stiglitz / Jacques Sarasin – 2009

Languages English, French and German Subtitles: English, French and German

DVD (428)

In this hard-hitting documentary about the perils and promises of globalisation, Nobel laureate Joseph E. Stiglitz takes a tour of the world. Interviews with the president of Ecuador, African tribesmen, South American oil workers, angry farmers in India and the former president of Botswana reveal some of the paradoxes of our day--that while globalization is helping some countries, it has proved a disaster for others.

L'assemblée / Mariana Otero – 2018

Languages : French

Subtitles: English, Spanish and French for the hearing impaired

DVD (426)

On 31 March 2016, Place de la République in Paris, the protestation movement “Nuit Debout” was born. During three months, people from all sorts of backgrounds tried with passion to institute a new form of democracy: to talk together without speaking with one voice.

